

CAPSS Deployment Release Notes

August 2020

Stores

The CAPSS team has completed an update for CAPSS Main. The benefit for CAPSS business partners is upon submission of the JUS 123 or Bulk Upload transactions CAPSS users will not receive a duplicate error in the Owner-Applied Number (OAN) field, article field, and brand field.

Owner-Applied Number Field

- The owner applied number (OAN) field will now accept multiple property items within the same property transaction using the same identifying information in the OAN field and will not create a duplicate error.

Article Field

- The article field will now accept multiple property items (article) within the same property transaction (JUS 123 or bulk upload) and will not create a duplicate error, when entering the same OAN number.

Brand Field

- The brand field will now accept multiple property items (brand) within the same property transaction (JUS 123 or bulk upload) and will not create a duplicate error, when entering the same OAN number.

Reminder for the Serial Number Field

- The serial number entered (JUS 123 or bulk upload) must be unique/different for each property item to prevent a duplicate error.
