

Reparations Task Force Phone Summaries

Caller: E.Spring

Date: Wednesday, January 25, 9:42 a.m.

E.Spring calls in to inquire about access to the livestream link for the upcoming January meeting and leaves her contact information.

Caller: Rev. B

Date: Thursday, January 26, 10:40 a.m.

Rev. B opens noting their advocacy for reparations since the 70s and is seeking additional information regarding the Task Force in preparation for an interview they will have tomorrow.

Caller: J.Jackson

Date: Thursday, January 26, 4:34 p.m.

J. Jackson calls in to request an accommodation for the Friday and Saturday AB 3121 Public Meeting before leaving her contact information.

Caller: R.Johnson

Date: Friday, January 27, 11:39 a.m.

R.Johnson calls in to request accommodations for all future meetings. R.Johnson notes she would like to speak to someone to pose questions and concerns regarding AB 3121 public meetings.

Caller: V.Richards

Date: Saturday, January 28, 2:40 p.m.

V.Richards opens the calls in to provide contact information for themselves and a J.Nadem.

Caller: J.Benson

Date: Tuesday, January 31, 2:59 p.m.

J.Benson calls in to inquire why this initiative is not a national effort. J.Benson recommends that in light of the tax law consideration panel, sports team owners should also be taxed. J. Benson thanks the Task Force for the work they are doing.

Caller: C.Mckinney

Date: Wednesday, February 8, 8:04 p.m.

C.Mckinney calls in to recommend the abolishment of state taxes for descendants of enslaved people. Additionally, C.Mckinney thinks waiving school/college fees would also help acclimate those unfamiliar with reparations. C.Mckinney ends with providing her contact information.

Caller: N/A

Date: Saturday, February 18, 2022

Caller expressed immense disagreement with the idea of reparations and shared they would not seek reparations for the internment of their Japanese-American family. Caller expressed reparations are not needed because those who caused the harm have passed away. Caller ends their call expressing that nothing is stopping African Americans from succeeding by stating that recent African immigrants have been successful.

Caller: L.Marshall

Date: Tuesday, February 21, 4:00 p.m.

L.Marshall calls in to inquire about the livestream link meeting for the upcoming March AB 3121 Public Meeting. L.Marshall closes their call by providing their contact information.

Caller: S.Noble

Date: Tuesday, February 21, 8:02 p.m.

S.Noble noted that they provided documentation to the Task Force along with other government bodies and is seeking a response. S.Noble shares that they are entitled to reparations and that the governing bodies, the Task Force included, are haters. S.Noble noted that they would like a response to documents specific to their children and that they do not have time for the reparations study to be concluded.

Caller: Samuel

Date: Wednesday, February 22, 3:09 p.m.

Samuel calls in to inquire about general information about the Task Force (e.g., who is involved and how the public can participate).

Caller: D.Kofini

Date: Friday, February 24, 2022

D.Kofini calls in to inquire if they would be eligible for reparations. D.Kofini ends their call by providing their contact information.