

Corporate Complicity in Slavery

by Deadria Farmer-Paellmann, J.D., M.A.
Executive Director, Restitution Study Group
www.rsgincorp.org

1. Dry Bones – Unearthing the History of Slavery on Wall Street
2. Blue Chips – Exposing Banks, Insurers, Tobacco, and Railway
3. Litigation – Causes of Action, Plaintiffs
4. Legislation – Slavery Era Disclosure Laws and Violators Today

1. Dry Bones – Unearthing the History of Slavery on Wall Street

Figure 1. Remains of Enslaved African at African Burial Ground, NYC

2. Blue Chips – Exposing Banks, Insurers, Tobacco, and Railway

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

AGENCY AT Saint Louis Mo

No. of Application 37 No. of Policy 37

SLAVE POLICY.

Aetna Insurance Comp'y,
OF HARTFORD, CONN.

Benefit of John S. Quinn

Date November 12 1887

Term Twelve Months

No. Insured 6

Sum Assured $2750

Amount of Premium $67.75

Extra

Examination

Policy 1100
$68.75

NO.	NAME	AGE	VALUE	AM. VAL.	RATE	PREMIUM	OCCUPATION
1	Man Lane	10	400	300	2 1/2	6	None
2	Bally	18	900	600	2 1/2	15	"
3	Ben	15	500	400	2	8	House Servant
4	Sumford	19	900	700	2 1/2	17 50	Farm Hand
5	Hannah	48	400	250	4 1/2	11 25	Cook
6	Maney	18	800	500	2	10	House Servant

Figure 2. Aetna Insurance Slave policy compilation

Fleetboston Financial Corp/Bank of America
Brown Brothers Harriman & Company
Lehman Brothers Corporation
JP Morgan Chase

Aetna Inc.
New York Life Insurance Company
Southern Mutual Insurance Company
AIG
Lloyd's of London

CSX Corporation
Union Pacific Railroad
Canadian National Railway
Norfolk Southern Corporation

R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company
Brown and Williamson
Liggett Group
Lowe's Corporation

Figure 3. Select Complicit Corporations

3. Litigation – Causes of Action, Plaintiffs

Figure 4. Timothy Hurdle, son of enslaved

Figure 5. Emma Marie Clark, enslaved

4. Legislation – Slavery Era Disclosure Laws and Violators Today

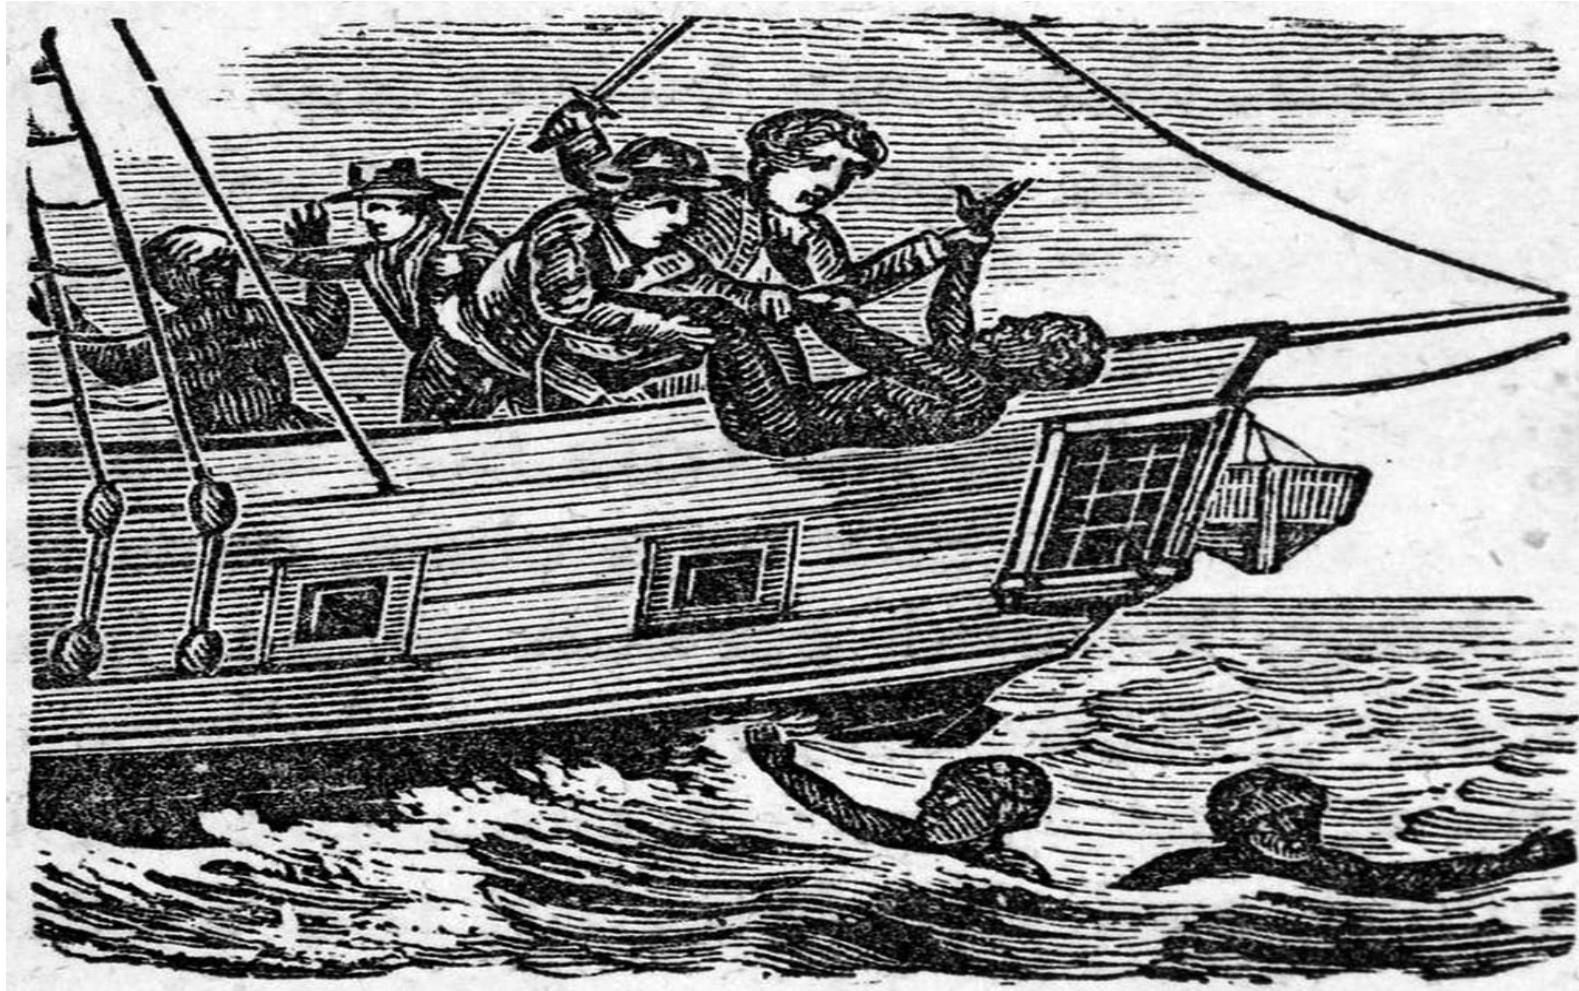

Figure 6. The Zong Slave Ship murders, 1781